Submission Guidelines

Manuscript Specifications

Length: 1,000 to 3,000 words or 5 to 12 pages double-spaced.

Format: All manuscripts should be double-spaced and typed on 8½" by 11" white paper. All pages should be numbered and three copies should be submitted for review purposes. Where possible, floppy disks using WordPerfect should be submitted with typed manuscript.

Publication

Basis for Judging Manuscripts: Manuscripts will be judged on the following points: factual accuracy, style and ease of reading, structure and logical flow, length, relevance to audience, and analysis of information. Favorable consideration will generally not be given to an article that has been published previously or which is being considered by another magazine. Articles which are used to advertise a product or a service will be rejected.

Query Letters: The Editor suggests that authors submit a detailed one- to two-page outline before writing an article. This is intended to help authors but does not guarantee publication of the article.

Author Notification: Receipt of manuscript will be confirmed. Letters of acceptance or rejection will be sent following review. Articles accepted for publication cannot be guaranteed a publication date.

Copyright: Because the Bulletin is a government publication, materials published within it are not copyrighted.

Editing: The Bulletin reserves the right to edit all manuscripts.

Submission

Authors may contact the Special Agent coordinator for police training at the nearest FBI field office for help in submitting articles or manuscripts may be forwarded directly to:
